

JONES sometimes wakes up feeling cross and in consequence the family know it without his telling them in so many words.

Mrs. Jones attributes it to biliousness and if it doesn't wear off during the day she gives him a dose of liver medicine at night. The next morning he feels better and she gives him coffee for breakfast,—and the next morning,—and the next morning. And in a few days Jones has another spell.

Dear Mrs. Jones means all right, but she doesn't seem to realize that if she didn't give Jones his morning coffee she wouldn't have to give him the liver medicine and Jones would feel all right without both.

Housewives everywhere have found out that Instant Postum takes the place of breakfast coffee perfectly. And that is only one of the reasons why Instant Postum has wholly supplanted the use of coffee on thousands upon thousands of American breakfast tables.

Mrs. Mary A. Thomas, 82, said to have been the first woman missionary from this country to India, is dead, at the home of her niece, near Richmond. She was the widow of the Rev. David W. Thomas, of Nicholville, N. Y.

Edward Lee Roberson, twenty-four years old, a machinist, of Birmingham, Ala., was found dead in the bathtub in the home of T. M. Kemper in Richmond Saturday, by his eighteen-year-old wife. He had died from suffocation resulting from faulty ventilation of an instantaneous hot-water heater.

Near Broadway, Rockingham county, Friday a vicious hog attacked a driving horse belonging to Mrs. Sarah Mason and killed it. The hog sank its teeth deep into the flesh of the horse and almost tore it to pieces. Arrangements are being completed by the Richmond Housewives' League for the general mass-meeting to be held Wednesday afternoon in the hall of the House of Delegates at the Capitol Building, when it is expected that definite action will be taken by the league, looking to the declaration of boycotts against the prevailing high prices for various commodities.

President Wilson has tentatively accepted an invitation to address the Southern Commercial Congress at its opening session at Norfolk on December 11. A delegation of Virginians, headed by Governor Stuart and including both Senators, all the Virginia Congressmen and the Mayor of Norfolk, will be received by the President at the White House at 2 o'clock next Friday afternoon, at which time the invitation will be formally tendered.

"MY KIDNEYS WERE
AWFUL---BUT NOW
THEY'RE ALL RIGHT"

Baltimore Lady Finds Quick Relief From Stubborn Case of Kidney Trouble—Lives At 429 North Luzerne Avenue.

"Honestly, I believe I had the worst case of Kidney trouble I ever heard of," said Mrs. Snyder recently.

"Indeed, when I first got up in the mornings, the pain in the small of my back was something frightful! So sharp, in fact, that it required half an hour's effort on my part before I could straighten up and walk around. The urine was very highly colored and had a very offensive odor."

"I've only taken one bottle of Dreo and am now on my second, and I'm mighty glad to say that it has simply worked wonders for me, for it seems that it has cleared all my troubles and began to do so with the very first dose. Inside of a week I could get up in the morning and move about as I used to do, without any sort of ache or pain in my back. That was almost good enough improvement in itself, but it wasn't all."

"My urine is now normal, no bad odor at any time, and the bad taste in my mouth when I awoke in the morning is almost entirely gone. I am going to take this second bottle of Dreo, and I honestly believe it will be all I need; but I have proven to myself this was the remedy I was looking for. And if you could see the dozens of bottles I've got at home—some I've taken half of and some all of—you'd almost feel sorry for me for having put so much drugs into my stomach."

This is an interesting case, because kidney trouble is so prevalent and painful. But it is nothing unusual for Dreo.

More than $6,000 in net cash was received by Game Commissioner Parsons from fifteen counties Saturday representing the revenue to the state from licenses for the month of November. Should the remaining counties and cities make the average of the fifteen reported the total for the month of November would reach $40,000, Richmond city will return close to $2,000 for this month. Mr. Parsons said that the total revenues of the department for the year would exceed $60,000. Reports from all parts of the state indicate that the land owners and game wardens are more than satisfied with the operations of the law, as it has ridded the farmers of the prowlers and pot hunters, and game is not being chased at all hours of the day and night. Game is more plentiful in every section of Virginia.

Next month Game Commissioner Parsons will receive fifty elk from the government reservation of Yellowstone Park to be set free in the mountainous section of Virginia. He made this announcement in Richmond Saturday, after receiving a telegram from Senator Swanson, who had interested himself in the matter and who had appeared before Secretary Lane, of the department of the interior. While in Washington Mr. Parsons arranged with the fisheries department to furnish Virginia with a fish hatchery for the waters of the Pamunkey.

ECHO OF DUAL TRAGEDY

A Man is Arrested in Boston on Suspicion of Being Connected With Crime in County in 1915.

George Provasiles, alias Brown, was held without bail in the Federal Court in Boston yesterday, on suspicion of having been implicated in the murder of Isaac Waldrop and Nicholas Coffinas, in Alexandria county, on January 9, 1915. He had previously pleaded guilty to two indictments charging conspiracy to import narcotic drugs from Canada. The Washington, D. C., authorities were notified and will send officers to Boston.

Waldrop was shot dead when he came to the rescue of his daughter, Mrs. Matty Hughes, who had been hit over the head by a masked burglar, according to the story told by Mrs. Hughes, at the time Coffinas and Waldrop, were killed at her home in the county. The burglar then shot Coffinas, who had escorted Mrs. Hughes home from a visit to Washington.

Through finger prints, a flashlight and clothing found in the Waldrop home, the police obtained evidence which led to the search of Provasiles. Deputy United States Marshall Chas. A. Bancroft found Provasiles in New York city, where he was conducting a Greek club, and through a ruse induced him to come to his home in Lynn, Mass., where he was arrested.

This double murder caused considerable excitement in Alexandria county and this city at the time. Chief Goods and Sergeant Wilkinson went to the scene next day, and after making a close investigation they were of the opinion that the dual murderers did not have robbery in view, but that the seizure of jewelry, etc., was to make it appear that the killing was the outcome of a burglary.

The scene of the double murder is in Alexandria county, on Mount Vernon Avenue, near Johnson's corner, a short distance beyond Hume school house.

Mrs. Hughes said she had been in Washington and had met Coffinas at Grand Hotel, in that city. She later entered a taxicab with the deceased and started for her home. Upon reaching her house she found two men there, one of whom knocked her down and brutally kicked her. Coffinas, was at the gate settling with the chauffeur, when she was attacked. When she screamed her father came to her rescue, and one of the men shot him four times. Coffinas was subsequently shot and killed by the men. Mrs. Hughes was Miss Mattie A. Waldrop, of South Carolina.

Daniel Jones, 79 years old, pleaded guilty in Danville to a charge of picking the pocket of a farmer several weeks ago. The Judge gave him the minimum sentence—one year in the penitentiary—and then suspended sentence. Jones is a native of Louisiana.

Miss Mattie Anderson, a school teacher from Front Royal, committed suicide yesterday at Atlantic City, N. J., by drowning in the ocean. She was walking with her mother on the boardwalk, when she suddenly dashed into the water and resisted rescue. She is said to have been suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Harrisonburg's record under the new Prohibition law was spoiled Sunday by the arrest of four men charged by the authorities with bringing into the State more than the legal quart a month. Six men hired an automobile and went to Williamsport, Md., and returned with nine quarts of liquor. The police got word of the trip and watched for their men all night. The men became suspicious and two of them escaped. Most of the whisky was found by the police. Frank Dorman, Percy Brown, Bud Willis and Fred Hawse are in jail and the police are looking for Nedith and Ashby Malone, who took to the woods.

A city-wide boycott against eggs and turkeys, inaugurated by the Housewives' League and indorsed by women's organizations, labor unions and others began yesterday in Norfolk. WAIVED EXAMINATION

W. W. Simpson Will Appear Before Corporation Court at Next Grand Jury Term.

The case of W. W. Simpson, arrested several days ago on the charge of violating the prohibition law by bringing liquor into the state of Virginia, came up in the Police Court this morning. His counsel, Louis N. Duffey, stated that his client waived examination and would appear before the grand jury. Simpson, it will be remembered, was arrested on the charge of having in his possession a suit case containing bottled whisky.

John Nelson, colored, was before the court this morning to answer the charge of being drunk and with having an unlawful quantity of liquor in his possession. Officer Smith placed two pint bottles filled with whisky and a half-pint bottle containing gin, on the desk. The liquor had been found in Nelson's pockets. Robinson Moncure appeared as counsel for the accused. The prisoner in his statement said he was employed as cook on the steamer Majestic, and he alleged he purchased the liquor in Washington to take to his farm on the lower river. He reached the Majestic's wharf in Washington too late to get aboard, as the boat was pulling out of the dock. He boarded a trolley car for Alexandria in order to get aboard at this port. Justice Caton held him for the action of the grand jury.

James Bradson, a white man, had been arrested for being drunk. He met a policeman last night and asked the way to the station house. The officer guided him to his objective point. When brought in court this morning he begged to be allowed to go to his home, in Richmond, and Justice Caton ordered that he be kept until he became perfectly sober, when he will be allowed to depart.

John Percy Blake, colored, was fined $5 for assault.

appealed to Governor Stuart to appoint a commissioner to investigate the high prices.

Citizens of Page county met Saturday and adopted resolutions favoring the issuing of $200,000 of bonds for good roads. The tentative proposition is for the construction of a modern highway from the Warren county line to the Rockingham county line, a stretch of 33 miles. Crossing this highway about midway, it is proposed to construct a modern road from the Shenandoah county to the Rappahannock county lines, a distance of about 14 miles. These counties have given assurance that they will meet the Page county road with a similarly constructed highway, leading to Culpeper on the east and New Market on the west, thus putting Page county within easy communication with Baltimore and Washington.

Injuries which Elbridge McWhorter 12 years old, of Richmond suffered when one of his boy companions accidentally shot him in the neck with a small caliber revolver, were not serious, it is said at Memorial Hospital, where he was treated.

Judge Richardson decided in the hustings court of Richmond yesterday that money left with the Stephen Putney Shoe Company by Stephen Putney, executor of the Marion B. Langhorne estate, was a loan and not a deposit and therefore, is taxable as intangible personal property. This means that the state is entitled to a tax of 35 cents on the $100 and the city to a tax of $1.40. The amount involved was $166,000 approximately. The money was to be paid in eighteen monthly installments and was to draw 5 per cent. Had the decision been otherwise the state would have been entitled to a tax of 20 cents on the $100 and the city to nothing.

ENJOABLE PRESENTATION

Of "Madame Grundy" at Christ Church Parish Hall.

Mrs. George Prior Anderson, in the title part, realistically depicted Madame Grundy's Dilemma with regard to furnishing new styles for the ladies of fashion at the parish hall of Christ church last evening. She was ably assisted by Memory, Miss Helen Norris Cummings, who used her powers of memory, Miss Katherine Henderson and Miss Dorothy Martin, to reincarnate famous women of the past, in the hope of seeing in their costumes some ideas for a change of fashion.

Mrs. James Daring Fauntleroy was regal as Helen of Troy, but her Grecian robe did little to assist the famous dame of public opinion; Mrs. Chester D. Hubbard, as Tennyson's Princess was splendid and her costume was more of an inspiration in assisting with the present styles. Mrs. Richard Gibson as Marguerite was dainty and bewitching, and the fastidious dame felt that her simplicity of dress might please some ladies of culture. Gerturde, Miss Minnie Henderson, might have been an ideal and faithful wife but her gown did little to relieve the situation. Joan Shakespeare, Mrs. George Smoot French, was a most pert young woman, and continually referred to the opinions of her brother "William," but her presence could be better endured as her costume offered more possibilities than most. Mrs. George E. Pickett represented a Watteau Shepherdess and her costume was unusually pretty, but the pannier effect has been used so recently that it did not help Madame Grundy, but the solo sung so beautifully was a treat to all. Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson portrayed Josephine, and her costume was

There will be a meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the M. E. Church South tomorrow at 3 p. m. The social service committee will have charge.

The rehearsals for the "Girl and the Soldier" at the opera house yesterday was a big success. The scene between Billy Breeze (Prof. Bandy) and the Admiral (Prof. Ryan) was practiced bringing in the full strength of the two hundred voices in grand chorus. The songs in this scene, "Why Can't A Girl Be a Soldier," and "Tis All for Uncle Sam," were sung with vigor and vim, and the funny lines between Billy and the Admiral kept the others laughing. The song "Soldier Boy" with Miss Marion Greenaway as soloist, and which closes the first act also was very successful. The song and drill of the Red Cross nurses, "Trading Smiles," with Miss Haslett, Miss Pullman and Miss Greenaway leading, was conceded by the chaperones to likely be the hit of the show. All the participants are enthused over the big production and Thursday night will be the first performance. As it is under the auspices of the Washington and Lee schools a big crowd is expected.

Mrs. Brooke, of Norfolk, was the guest of friends in this city this week.

KANE'S CONDITION

Wounded Young Man Has Greatly Improved

The condition of Mr. Kane at the Alexandria Hospital had much improved this morning. Dr. Delaney, who has complete charge of the case having been the one designated by the prefect of students at Georgetown University to treat the young man, had Dr. Walter A. Warfield to see the case with him this morning. Dr. Warfield has just returned from the border, where he has had opportunities to observe many cases of a similar nature.

STATUE OF LEE IN PLACE

Will Be Unveiled on Field of Gettysburg During Next Confederate Reunion in Washington.

The equestrian statue of Robert E. Lee that will be unveiled next year at Gettysburg, is at last in place, and the project that had its origin seven years ago, when it was first proposed that a memorial to the great Southern leader be erected on the war's most memorable battle field, has been brought to a successful end. All that remains to be done now is the actual unveiling.

Sculptor F. William Sievers, to whom the making and placing of the statue has been the first care for more than four years, returned yesterday from Gettysburg after seeing the monument put in place and wrapped in canvas against the day of unveiling. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the manner in which the monument has been cast by the Tiffany studios, and with its appearance as finally placed. Its situation, with reference to its immediate surroundings, he said, is admirable.

Originally, it had been the intention to unveil the monument at the semi-centennial Gettysburg celebration of 1915. Delay after delay occurred to prevent this plan. At first the sculptor found difficulty in perfecting a model of Lee, and later, when the model was finished, freight tie-ups prevented its prompt delivery to the founders. It was not until a few weeks ago that the Tiffany studios, on Long Island, completed the casting.

It is planned to make the unveiling a feature of the Confederate Reunion, which will take place next May, at Washington. The program committee will be asked to set aside one day of the convention to allow the veterans to attend the unveiling, to which will be invited also the Governors of several Southern States and their staffs. There will be a big military display, including the attendance of the Virginia Military Institute cadets.

BOOSTS PROHIBITION

Profits of Big Richmond Hotel Increase With Bar Eliminated

Statewide prohibition was given a strong boost by Colonel John Murphy, proprietor of Murphy's hotel in Richmond yesterday. Colonel Murphy was conversing with Judge D. C. Richardson in the hustings court. He had dropped in to sign a security bond for the Home for Incurables, in which philanthropy he has been long interested, and the conversation turned on the changed conditions due to the banishment of John Barleycorn. "I would not return to the old order of things for anything in the world," said Colonel Murphy.

"Strange as it may appear, I find I am actually benefited financially. Since we closed the bar the hotel is more comfortable and the conduct of business in every department less troublesome than ever before. With the different expenses the bar entailed eliminated, I find we are actually earning better profits from the sale of soft drinks than we got from liquor. So gratifying is the change that I have issued an order for the immediate dismissal of any employee who may be found drinking liquor in my hotel or keeping it on the premises."

SUBMARINE IN WEST INDIES

Providence, R. I., Dec. 5.—The Providence Journal declares it has authoritative information that there are now two large German submarines in the West Indies and that two others, having left Kiel November 5, escaped the British patrol and are on their way to the United States coast. The latter two were part of a fleet of four, two being captured by the British, the Journal declares, adding that the President, fully advised of the facts, has made strenuous representations to Ambassador Bernstorff on the subject.

Tells Joint Session of Congress Country Cannot be Exposed to Industrial Disturbances.

President Wilson read his annual message to Congress today. Declaring the country "cannot and should not consent to remain any longer exposed to profound industrial disturbance," President Wilson appeared before a joint session of Congress today and appealed for immediate action on his program of "settlement and regulation of difficulties" between the railroads and their trainmen.

Statement of the need of such legislation occupied the bulk of his annual message—the shortest one he has delivered. It recommended the passage of the provisions, included but not acted upon in his last special appeal last August. At that time a nation-wide strike necessitated Congressional action.

In a late addition to his message, the President urged the passage by the House of the vocational and industrial education measures passed by the Senate during the last session.

It is believed the President will either deliver a special message on the question later or take it up personally with the House and Senate leaders when a plan he deemed feasible has been found.

So serious does the President regard the high-cost of living question that he has determined to keep it out of politics if possible.

WILL LEVY SPECIAL TAX

Richmond Authorities Exercised Over Falling Off in Receipts Through Prohibition Law, Etc.

To meet the deficit caused by recent court decisions in tax revenues by the loss of liquor licenses, by roads made in the city's treasury by increased population and by the extension of territory, the City Council of Richmond now has before it a resolution looking toward a special levy upon all property, real and personal, to take care of the needs of the public-school system for the coming year. The measure was introduced at last night's meeting of the Common Council by Councilman Morgan R. Mills, of Jefferson Ward, a member of the Committee on Finance. The resolution instructs this committee to formulate a plan for a special school tax levy and to report as to the best method at the next meeting of the lower branch of the Council.

"That the city's finances are in bad shape is no secret," said Mr. Mills, "and the School Board has asked for an appropriation of nearly $1,000,000 to meet the expenses of the city's educational system for the coming fiscal year, beginning on February 1. It is certain that we must raise additional revenue, and to this end I offered this resolution. Just what system may be devised to accomplish the purpose sought remains to be seen. But something has got to be done and without loss of time."

It is claimed that the city loses by tax segregation. Other cities throughout the commonwealth are becoming alarmed at conditions in Richmond, and there is no telling how soon the example of the capital city may not be followed elsewhere.

FATHER AND SON TO PRISON

Farm Paper Publishers Used Mails to Defraud.

Indianapolis, Dec. 5.—James A. Everitt and his son, Sibley F. Everitt, both of Indianapolis, were found guilty of using the mails to defraud in the Federal court here yesterday and sentenced to serve 18 months in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga.

James A. Everitt is known widely among farmers of the United States as former president of the farmers' organizations known as the "Farmers' Society of Equity," and the "American Society of Equity." His son has been associated with him in the publication of a farm paper. The young man attempted to take the blame and told the Court that he and not his father was responsible for sending through the mails the statement on which each was found guilty.

RELIGION REBORN IN WAR

The Thirty Year's War had its origin in religious issues. At its close it was difficult to say what the belligerents were contending for, as all varieties of issues resulted from this terrible and protracted struggle. Many parts of Europe were desolate when the sword was finally replaced in the scabbard and people came to their senses. According to a recent passage, the present war will cause the "rebirth of religion."

That there will be a rebirth of religion throughout the entire world as a result of the European war was the statement of the Rev. Dr. Samuel McComb, canon of the Protestant Episcopal Pro-Cathedral, in Baltimore, who gave an informal talk in the banquet hall of the Hotel Belvedere yesterday afternoon, before a large and fashionable audience. His topic was "Some By-Products of the Great War."

In describing the movements set on foot by the conflict, Dr. McComb pointed out that thousands of Catholics and Protestants have been fighting side by side in the trenches during the last two years.

"It is only natural," he said, "that these men should hold many discussions of the great spiritual truths of life. They are interested in the meaning of prayer and its power, and also in the hereafter, into which they may be swept at any moment. A rebirth of religion is being experienced by these soldiers that will sweep the world when the struggle comes to a conclusion."

YAWN IN CHURCH COSTS $20.

The minutes of a Kentucky court show that it is an expensive pastime in that part of the world to yawn in church. The New Testament tells us of a thoughtless youth named Eutychus who fell asleep while Paul was delivering an all-night talk and fell out of a window. He was picked up dead, according to the narrative, but the great Apostle revived him.

Henry Hipshire, has paid $20 in the County Court of Lexington, for his misdeed while Pastor Bottom was working up his peroration in the course of a sermon at the old Union Church, Lordale, recently. As the congregation hung spellbound on the words of the minister, the jury was told, Hipshire wearily abandoned himself to an abysmal yawn. There was such a tinge of distaste and aggressiveness in it, it was said, that Hipshire was both ejected and arrested. "Disturbing public worship" was the charge filed in the County Court on which the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

NOW AND THEN.

Certain German writers, mostly novelists, tell us of patriotism shown by Austrian and Prussian women when Napoleon Bonaparte was subjugating the Fatherland, Soul-stirring descriptions of young women distinguishing themselves as men and enlisting as soldiers, some of whom fell in battle, have long interested Teutonic readers. This martial spirit, however, does not seem to be in evidence at present; as the women are flinching at the thought that they are to be forced to work in civil occupations while the men are at the front.

According to a dispatch from Amsterdam, the passage of the home army bill caused a panic throughout Berlin, last week, when it was realized that women would be forced into the factories. There was a demonstration of women, many of who are wives of soldiers, outside of Charlottenburg, townhall, who protested against the provisions of the measure and demanded bread and two days' leave for all soldiers. The women also demanded peace.

RUSSIA AND THE SPOILS.

Premier Trepoff's statement to the Russian Duma, is the first formal announcement that Great Britain, France and Italy have entered into an agreement to give Russia Constantinople and the Dardanelles as her part, or a part of her part, of the spoils of war. This compact, it appears, was concluded in 1915, and may have been extorted during that discouraging year as the price of Russia's continued co-operation. As the Baltimore Sun says, there has been so much drawing of shrewd bargains in Europe during the last two years that it does no injustice to the Russian Government to suppose that it took advantage of the gloomy military situation last year to insist on definite guarantees. She had no choice in 1914 about entering the war, but if she could have made an advantageous deal with Germany in 1915 she might possibly have been inclined to consider it. There were rumors at the time that she contemplated a separate peace, and doubtless Germany offered her a price, but she could not offer what Russia wants more than anything else. Perhaps the announcement that is made now is the result of Russian insistence on publicity. It may be considered important to leave room for no misunderstanding when the time to divide the spoils arrives.

The menhaden fishing season, which has just closed, was successful and the menhaden factories in the lower Northern Neck of Virginia will be able to declare good dividends.

Gas escaping from a coal stove in the cabin of the oyster boat Hyacinth owned and commanded by Captain John A. Morgan, of Chester, Pa., asphyxiated Charles Thompson, of Bridgeport, N. J., and William Gorman, members of the crew, as the craft lay at anchor off Sibir, John

Dr. Henry Van Dyke, Minister to The Netherlands, has resigned and probably will be succeeded by John W. Garrett, of Baltimore, formerly Minister to Argentina. The resignations of Thaddeus A. Thompson, Minister to Colombia, and William H. Hornibrook, Minister to Siam, also were announced.

The bombardment of Bucharest by the German heavy artillery, has been under way since Sunday, the Copenhagen newspaper National Tidende learns from its Berlin correspondent. The Teuton big guns are emplaced eleven miles south of the Rumanian capital, the dispatch says. Field Marshal von Mackensen has been placed in supreme command of all invading forces in Roumania. He thus becomes superior to Gen. Erich von Falkenhayn, who a year ago, as chief of the great general staff, was higher in rank than Mackensen. Throughout the German empire church bells tolled yesterday upon special order by the Kaiser, in celebration of the great Teuton victory on the Arges (Argesul) river, which is hailed in Germany as sealing Roumania's doom.

Stephen Preis, of Oradell, when on his way to work at 7 o'clock yesterday morning found the body of a man lying alongside the New Jersey and New York Railroad tracks near Hackensack, N. J., but because of the mangled condition of the body did not recognize it as that of his brother Charles, 41 years old. Several trains evidently had passed over the body. Preis was a farmer and was well known.

THE BODY IS A HUMAN DRYDOCK

A Storehouse for Disease That Wreck The System and Cause Much Misery.

The human body unless given careful attention will contract all kinds of germs that will eventually wear down the working organs and cause sickness. Mrs. P. S. Cooke, of 19 E. 11th Street, Richmond, Va., said in regard to this:

"I had an awful amount of gas on my stomach and was very weak and run down. My appetite was very poor and everything I ate caused a fullness in my throat and I suffered from severe headaches. My bladder and kidneys also gave me trouble. I decided to try Tanlac and now I am not troubled with gas and my kidneys and bladder are better. My appetite is improved and I am gaining in strength every day. My general condition has improved and I feel fine. I recommend Tanlac to everyone who is sick as I know it to be a great remedy."

Go today to Leadbeater Drug Corporation, Alexandria, or G. T. Man-kin and Son, Falls Church, and get a bottle of Tanlac and drive the sickness out of your system. Delay is dangerous.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

Roy Thomas, a young farmer living near Dockery, literally ran himself to death in attempting to catch his runaway team. Thomas followed the team nearly half a mile and when in front of the home of James Reyburn fell in the road. Efforts of physicians to revive him with a pulmotor were futile. The strain of the long run had ruptured a blood vessel.

One of the charges of drinking in a public place, a young man giving the name of S. Holt was held for grand jury action yesterday in the Richmond police court. According to Patrolman Galbraith, who arrested him, he took a drink out of a bottle in a Broad street restaurant early yesterday morning. In addition to being sent on to the grand jury, Holt was fined $10 on a charge of drunkenness. Six other men were also fined $10 for drunkenness.

William H. Woody, who ran Danville's first motion-picture theatre, pleaded guilty yesterday to bigamy and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Woody's two wives did not appear, the prisoner making known his desire last week to take sentence. Woody was married to Alley Dean Whitby at Petersburg in 1910. He left her and the next his wife heard of him was in Lynchburg, a few months ago with another wife. Wife No. 1, had him arrested. His second wife is Katherine White, of Prestonville, N. C. He had a child by each marriage.

There was a marked falling off in revenues collected in the Richmond Police court last month compared with November, 1915. Collections for the Serbian official communication issued yesterday tells of the capture of heavily fortified Bulgarian positions north of Grunishite and Budimirtas, east of the Cerna River in Serbia, in fighting lasting several days.

Two Belgians who have arrived at Sluiskill, Holland, from Ghent, report that there was a revolt in Antwerp on November 30, in which between two and three hundred inhabitants and many German soldiers are said to have been killed, according to a dispatch. The reported revolt was due to a call upon the inhabitants for work in Germany.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

In an open letter to this country, made public yesterday in New York, Charles P. Trevelyan, Liberal member of the British House of Commons, declares the common people of Great Britain, as well as of the other belligerents, are "heartily sick of the war." Mr. Trevelyan is of the opinion that the only hope of peace lies in the force of public opinion in the United States and other neutral countries. He pleads that the great neutrals should consistently urge peace, "speaking not to the governments, but to the people, with a voice so loud it would reverberate across the seas."

The Serbian official communication issued yesterday tells of the capture of heavily fortified Bulgarian positions north of Grunishite and Budimirtas, east of the Cerna River in Serbia, in fighting lasting several days.
